

Jenna Baer

Objective: To use my knowledge of creative writing and outside the box opinions in an environment where communication skills and innovative thinking are valued.

3716 Elmora St.
Houston, TX 77005
(713) 857-8429
jrbaer14@gwu.edu

EDUCATION

George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

Expected to graduate in May 2024 with a BA in Creative Writing

Current GPA: 4.0

Previous Relevant Coursework:

- Media In A Free Society
- Media Culture & COVID-19
- What's New About New Plays
- Introduction To Public Health And Health Services
- Writing About Romantic Comedies

Carnegie Vanguard High School, Houston, TX

August 2016 - June 2020

Graduated with honors.

ACTIVITIES

The GW Hatchet, Student Newspaper, Washington, D.C. — Podcast Researcher & Opinions Writer

September 2020 - PRESENT

- Compiled research, investigated cultural trends, wrote opinion pieces

The District Debrief, Satirical News Show, Washington, D.C.,— Writer

September 2020 - PRESENT

- Crafted headlines and scripts based on popular culture events, e.g. presidential debates

Councilwoman Abbie Kamin Campaign, Houston, TX— Intern

June 2019-November 2019

- Raised awareness for upcoming election at local caucuses, knocked on doors, and wrote policy for official website (candidate recently won and is on Houston City Council)

VOLUNTEER WORK

- Teacher's Assistant at Congregation Beth Israel's Religious School
 - Five years of volunteering, receiving over 200 hours of service
 - Aided teacher in classroom management, Judaic studies, and Hebrew
- Helped raise funds for medical care in Puerto Rico
 - Volunteered in the production and planning of the Carnegie International Festival to raise funds

AWARDS

Gold Key for a memoir from the Scholastic Writing Competition (2020)

Gold Key for a short story from the Scholastic Writing Competition (2020)

Gold Key for a memoir from the Scholastic Writing Competition (2019)

AP Scholar With Distinction

AP Capstone Diploma

INTERESTS

Politics

Comedy (from Lenny Bruce to Ali Wong)

Social Justice

SKILLS

Creative and Editorial Writing

Academic Research

Communication